

Let me see them through Jesus' eyes

The musical score is written in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. It consists of a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The piano part features a steady bass line and chords in the right hand. The lyrics are as follows:

Je - sus looked on the face of a blind man, who had lived through e - ter - nal
 When the poor wid - ow dropped in her off - ring, she was scorned for not giv - ing Je - sus looked up and he saw Zac - chae - us, who was hat - ed and oft ma - Af - ter Je - sus was nailed to the seaf - fold, he saw those who had caused his night. So he touched him and both eyes were o - pened, and the more. Je - sus said, "She gave more than the o - thers. She has ligned He was shunned by the good folks of Is - rael. Je - sus pain. But he lift - ed his eyes to the Fa - ther, "For - give blind man got back his sight. When hurt - ing per - sons look to me for aid, am I giv - en her en - tire store." Do I look down on those who can - not give? Do I said, "In your house, I'll dine." Do I shun those whose life - styles are not mine; those whom them, they don't un - der - stand." If I view per - sons as my en - e - mies, do I moved by the pas - sion of their sighs? think that my gift should win the prize? I know Je - sus of Naz - a - reth good folks will u - sual - ly de - spise?
 cause them to some - times pay the price?

loves them. Let me see them through Je - sus' eyes.

Text: Jay D Weaver, 2006

Tune: Irish Folk Song,

Harmony: Jay D Weaver, 2006

Text and Harmonization Copyright © 2006 Jay D Weaver