

A Ship of Grace to Set Us Free

ZION'S PILGRIM

Our jour - ney through life is oft per - iled with gales; seas roar and When out of the dark - ness there comes a sweet voice, "You are not a - Our ship an - chored safe, now the fu - ry is gone; The Mas - ter has might - y waves roll. In dark - ness we trem - ble as all cour - age fails; We're lone on this sea. I made a great ship; won't you make it your choice? By calmed the wild sea. But oth - ers are lost and our work is not done Un - ship - wrecked and lost on the shoal. Im - pris - oned on is - lands of sin and de - grace, I will then set you free." With Christ at the helm, will our ship stand the til all are res - cued and free. May we serve as lights to our neigh - bors who spair, We cry to the Lord of the sea, "Al - though we're not wor - thy, is test? Through treach - er - ous wat - ers she sails. Ah, soon we will en - ter a ride in per - il up - on the wild sea. He made us a great ship of an - y - one there who some - how might help set us free?"

 ha - ven of rest, Where love dwells and grace nev - er fails.
 grace when we cried; He sure - ly will help set them free.
